

Shannon Noll and Screaming Jets headline Festival 73

DYSART'S 35th anniversary is being celebrated in style this weekend with a host of activities.

Australian Idol's Shannon Noll is the headline act at BMA Saraji Mine's Festival 73 tomorrow, part of a strong line-up featuring The Screaming Jets and Troy Cassar-Daly.

Local talent will be showcased by Banned from Dysart and Arcade Kid from Blackwater.

Festival-goers are being encouraged to take part in the Brisk Walk for Breast Cancer which will be around the town's football oval.

The walk lasts from 3pm to 7pm and is to raise money for the National Breast Cancer Association. All money raised will be matched through the BHP Billiton Matched Giving Program.

Breast cancer ambassadors Shane

Walker, formerly with the Brisbane Broncos, and his wife, netballer Katie Walker, will be taking part in the walk, as will Big Brother presenter Bree Amer.

On the day prizes will be awarded for most money raised and the best dressed team of walkers, and supporter packs will be given out to everyone who takes part.

Nominations for the walk are still open with registration on the day costing $10 per person.

Entry to the festival will be by gold coin donation, with gate proceeds also going to the NBCF.

A shuttle bus will be available for attendees between 1.30pm and 11.30pm.

Please contact Brodie Hanton on 4968 9738 for more information about the festival or the walk.

■ HEADLINE ACT: Australian Idol favourite Shannon Noll is topping the bill at this weekend's Festival 73